Defenses

Defendants assert the following defenses in opposition to the claims asserted by the Trustee:

First Defense -- Failure To State Claim Upon Which Relief May Be Granted

The Complaint and the causes of action therein asserted against Defendants fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or judgment entered.

Second Defense – Mere Conduit

To the extent that any Transfers were made to or for the benefit of any Defendant, such Defendant was a mere conduit for the funds subject of the Transfer in that Transfers sent from BLMIS to the Estate were then sent from the Estate to the government for the purpose of paying estate taxes that were owed by the Estate on account of the purported value of funds held at BLMIS in the name of the Estate.

Third Defense –Setoff and Recoupment

To the extent that any Transfers were made to or for the benefit of any Defendant and to the extent that such Transfers are avoidable and recoverable by the Trustee, such Defendant is entitled to set off or recoup amounts owing to such Defendant by the Trustee or the BLMIS estate against any sums owing to the Trustee.

Fourth Defense – Withdrawal of the Reference

Reference of this matter should be withdrawn to the United States District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) as the Bankruptcy Court does not have jurisdiction to enter a final judgment or conduct a jury trial in this matter.

Fifth Defense – Statute of Limitations

The statute of limitations has expired for bringing any claims against the Estate.

Additional Defenses

Defendants gives notice that they rely upon such other defenses as may become available and apparent in the course of discovery or otherwise and therefore reserve the right to amend this Answer to assert such defenses.

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray that judgment be entered in their favor and against the Trustee by denying all requests for relief made by the Trustee against Defendants, and by awarding Defendants their costs in this action, including attorneys' fees, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem appropriate.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants demand a jury trial on all issues so triable in this action in the District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) and states that it does not consent to the Bankruptcy Court conducting a jury trial.
